Note: Members of the public do not take part in council meetings themselves. However, members of the public who wish to make comments about any item that is on the agenda should make their wishes known at the beginning of the meeting to the Chairman. The Chairman will then arrange to find a suitable point at which to adjourn the proceedings to allow them to speak. Comments about items that are not specifically on the agenda may be raised under the special provision to adjourn the meeting and allow members of the public to address the Council. There is a normal time limit of four minutes per speech.
